Edn 169-09

The King's Most Excellent Majesty,

the Maharajah of Mysore

OFFICE OF THE PRIVATE SECRETARY

May it please your Majesty,—

I, the undersigned bonafide student of the Seventh standard, Matriculation, Belgaum, humbly beg to lay before your Majesty the following few lines, hoping that they will meet with your Majesty's Kind and due consideration

I am Lingayet priest by caste I have come here only to study English My native place is Kundgol in Sagar Taluka, Shivamoga Destrict, Mysore Presidency. I am now 15 years of age

About 8 or 9 years ago, our family members were in the possession of the whole land of the above mentioned village named Kundgol, but while they were out of the said village, for some days, to their desciples' houses, the said land of the village Kundgol, was taken by your Majesty's order and was added up to your Majesty's Government land.

"saying that, the owners of this said village land are unable to give land-tax for the said land" All my family members died but my mother & I "what is done cannot be helped" Now I am suffering like a fish out of water

I had been on the point of appearing for the Matriculation examination this year, but I did not do so from want of money Rs12 in each as advance fee of appearing for the examination I have nothing to depend upon, for the present, but my own hand labour And I am at a loss to know what to do for my further expenses Your Majesty knows that I require a large sum of money to buy books, to give school fee, and to buy food & clothing for me elly greatest desire is to study up to I.C.S. but "What to do," it is not in my hand because I am in the above said poor state I get £ scholarship from £ fund four rupees (Rs 4) in each per months, but what is the use of getting so little money, while I require a large sum of money. This little money is like the water poured in a hot-pot placed on a fire-place. (ಕೊಡಗಿನ ಒಲೆಯ ಮೇಲೆ ಇಟ್ಟ ಬಿಸಿ ಪಾತ್ರೆ), Canarese proverb

I beg humbly and respectfully that your Majesty will be kind enough to help me in money till I complete my above mentioned aim

By doing this act of kindness I shall ever be in the habit of praying to Almighty God for your Majesty's long life and prosperity in India

I remain, with profoundest veneration, sire, your Majesty's most faithful subject and dutiful Servant,

Channaya P Kundgolmath.
